

Job Description

Voices from Inside Teaching Artist – Part-time

Juvenile Camps & Halls Program

Organization Summary

The Unusual Suspects Theatre Company's (USTC) mission is to mentor, educate, and enrich youth in under-resourced communities by creating collaborative original theatre. Our mission powers our vision of a world where all youth are given the opportunities and support they need to succeed and to be heard, valued, and respected. We strive to be a bridge that helps youth make positive life choices.

Founded in the wake of the 1992 Los Angeles uprising, USTC has grown from a small, volunteer-led youth intervention program into an award-winning leader in arts education, youth development, mentorship, and community building. After nearly three decades of service within disinvested and underrepresented communities, our work focuses on ensuring the equitable enrichment and development of Los Angeles County's under-resourced youth and their communities. Our free, theatre-arts programs go beyond the reach of typical arts education workshops to offer personalized mentorship and a safe space for self-expression, empowering those we work with to identify and leverage their innate talents and overcome inequitable circumstances.

Job Summary

We seek Teaching Artists (TAs) to support our Voices from Inside Program, bringing theatre arts programming to youth inside Los Angeles County juvenile camps and halls, where students create, write, and perform original theatrical work through a structured devising process.

Teaching Artists work within a defined instructional framework that includes:

- A shared Story Development Process.
- Structured classroom models and lesson plans.
- Ensemble-based creation and performance.

- Teaching Artists implement this model with clarity, consistency, and responsiveness to student needs.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Facilitate bi-weekly or weekly Voices from Inside sessions using the provided curriculum and lesson structures.
- Guide students in generating, structuring, and performing original work.
- Support both whole-group instruction and individual student development.
- Apply core storytelling tools in real time.
- Maintain a focused, respectful, creative and collaborative classroom environment.
- Collaborate with co-teaching artists and program staff.
- Participate in training, planning, and feedback processes.
- Track and submit student attendance accurately and on time.
- Flag patterns in attendance, engagement, or classroom dynamics.
- Communicate proactively with program staff regarding student needs or challenges.
- Maintain consistency with curriculum, session structure, and program expectations.
- Uphold program standards across instruction, classroom culture, and student experience.

Skills & Qualifications

- Background in theatre, performance, playwriting, or directing.
- Experience working with youth in an educational or artistic setting.
- Experience working with youth in juvenile justice, probation, or custody settings is preferred.
- Cultural competency to work with individuals from diverse backgrounds.
- Experience working with Neurodiverse participants is highly desirable.
- Fluency in Spanish is highly desirable.

What We're Looking For

We are seeking Teaching Artists who are:

- Comfortable working within a structured methodology rather than only leading open-ended activities.
- Able to balance facilitation with clear instructional guidance.
- Responsive to student needs while upholding program expectations.
- Collaborative, reflective, and open to feedback.
- Maintain a focused, respectful, creative and collaborative classroom environment that is also welcoming and encouraging.

- Utilize strong classroom management strategies to support engagement, behavior, and group dynamics.
- Differentiate instruction to support a range of learning needs.

What Success Looks Like in This Role

- Students are actively generating and developing original material.
- Sessions are structured, focused, and purposeful.
- Teaching Artists are guiding, not just facilitating, student work.
- Classroom culture supports both creativity and accountability.
- All Teaching Artists will participate in scheduled ongoing trainings.

Work Environment & Physical Requirements

- Must be able to lift 30 pounds.
- Must be flexible working in a fast-paced, non-profit environment.
- Must have access to reliable transportation.
- Must be willing to work at multiple and various locations throughout Los Angeles County.
- Must be willing to use personal equipment such as a cell phone and a laptop/tablet.
- Candidates must be open to working a flexible schedule, including some evenings and weekends.
- Employment with USTC dependent upon clearance through Live Scan background check(s).

Schedule & Compensation

- Part-time, non-exempt position.
- Compensation: Teaching $60/HR; Planning $20/HR.
- Accrued sick Paid Time-Off (PTO) as designated by the State of California.
- Workshops are scheduled during after-school hours with occasional work in the evenings and on weekends.
